. . . will graduate with too much debt?	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

PART III. PAYING FOR COLLEGE

We want to understand how families are paying for college. Your answers are completely confidential: the data will be used for research purposes only. Your financial aid will not be affected in any way.

Need-based grants are based on ability-to-pay and typically require an application (such as a FAFSA) that discloses income and other information.

Merit-based grants are based on academic or other achievement or promise; they include national merit scholarships.

Athletic scholarships include only those made to athletes recruited by Division I NCAA schools.

- 15. Which, if any, of the following forms of financial assistance did your child receive to help pay for the current academic year? (Mark all that apply OR "None of the above.")
- Work-study job
 - Subsidized student loans
 - Unsubsidized student loans
 - Need-based grant (including federal programs)
 - Merit-based grant through this college/university
 - Other private scholarships
 - Athletic scholarship
 - None of the above

16. Did you apply for need-based financial aid for the current academic year?

- Yes
- No

17. Please use the scale below to describe the amount of GRANT AID that your child received for the current school year. Include all need- or merit-based grants (aid that need not be repaid). (Mark one.)

Grant Award this Year

PART V. YOUR COMMENTS

Please use the spaces on the next page to add your comments. College and university administrators read these comments and often use them to identify strengths and weaknesses. Since the survey is confidential, they cannot address individual issues. If you have a problem or concern and would like a personal response, you should also contact the appropriate individual(s) on campus directly.

C1. What has most pleased you about your child's college/university?

C2. What has most disappointed you about your child's college/university?

C3. A number of questions in the survey dealt with paying for college. Use the space below to add any comments or thoughts you have about this.

C4. Please use this space to make any other comments you would like about any of the topics raised in this survey or any other matter of concern to you.

The college or university that sent you this questionnaire may have included a sheet of additional questions. Please use the following spaces to answer these questions.
